Special Notices.

The Suicide of Slavery.

All Citizens of New-York are called in favor of sustaining the FALL OF TREASON, in the most energetic exercise of all the rights and duties of War, in the prosecution of its purpose and in the CAUSE of such Treason, and to recover it from the hands of those who have so far overreached and wholly violated the principles of the Federal Union, by their traitorous power calling itself "The Union, by the States"; and all who concur in the conviction that said traitors were never, instead of achieving the destruction of the Nation, has thereby only secured its final dissolution.
We, the citizens of the various parts of the National Government, and the members of the several departments of the Executive Declaration—That all men are created equal, endowed by the hand of Providence with certain inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness—are requested to meet at the
